INTRODUCTION TO THE BIBLE

Daniel F. Cates

Part XX: Proverbs

(Continued from last week) The key words of the book include "wisdom" (found fifty-four times) and "wise" (sixty-six times) and their counterparts "foolish" (forty-two times) and "fool" (thirteen times). The word "simple" is found thirteen times and what he should heed, "counsel," is found thirteen times. Physical parts of man used representatively are also common: heart (found eighty-one times), "eyes" (thirty times), "tongue" (nineteen times), "hands" (fifteen times), and "feet" (ten times) ought all to be in tune as the "soul" (thirty-eight times) in striving to heed wisdom's call. Key phrases include "the fear of the Lord" (fourteen times), "of life" (fifteen times), and "strange woman" (six times). As the key verse, Proverbs 1:5 shows that "A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels." The key passage, especially due the fragmentary nature of the book is the wonderful, beautiful, prolonged portrayal of the "virtuous woman" (Pro. 31:10-31). The key chapter is Proverbs 1 with its introduction of Wisdom's call.

As with the Psalms, lessons from the Proverbs must be innumerable, though many themes are constantly reconsidered. A few of the more general and oft repeated lessons include these: first, the wicked will ultimately receive according to their deeds (Pro. 1:10-19); second, counsel is to be sought and, when wise, is to be treasured (Pro. 12:15; 19:20; 11:14; 15:22; 24:6); third, words can help (Pro. 15:4; 25:11) or harm (Pro. 6:17,24;17:20; 18:21); fourth, wine is a vice (Pro. 20:1; 23:29-32). Another lesson is especially poignant in this day: Not only men, but nations also must be righteous (Pro. 14:34).

One other note is worthy of mention. Though there is a book in the Apocrypha titled "The Wisdom of Solomon," one should know that it is merely a "pseudepigraphal" [literally meaning "false writing"] work; that is, a writer, perhaps in the first century B.C., wanted for his proverbs to be accepted as authoritative, so he attached the name of Solomon to them. The plan worked, to a degree, for today his writings remain and are even accepted by some like the Catholic Church who have this book as part of their canon. One with a respect for God's Word will reject these, however, for it contains scientific error (7:2), Gnostic and other false doctrine (7:25; 8:19,20; 9:15; 11:17), and was not even accepted into the Catholic canon until A.D. 1546 with the determination of the Council of Trent.

"That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:" (Ephesians 4:14,15)

BIBLE QUESTION:

This week's question: Who put twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan River?

Last week's question: Who "will hear, and will increase learning"?

Last week's answer: "A wise man" (Proverbs 1:5)
